JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

From the N. Y. Post.

A FATHER'S SACRIFICE.

Albert G. Drecker is the watchman of the Passaic river drawbridge on the New York and Newark Railroad, whose business it is to see that the draw is closed upon the approach of the trains. On Friday afternoon last, just before a passenger train was to pass the bridge, the draw was open, and Mr. Drecker began to close it. The train was not yet in sight at this moment, but the watchman knew it was coming, and that no time should be lost in putting the bridge in its proper position. While engaged in closing the draw, a little son of Mr. Drecker, ten years old, fell from the bridge into the deep water below. To save the child's life would be an easy matter, but Mr. Drecker now saw the train thundering along the track, and knew that the rescue of his boy would involve the destruction of the train. What was he to do?

We may well suppose it was a moment of supreme agony. His child was drowning before his eyes, and its life could only be purchased at the loss of many other lives that were in his hands. God mercifully spare us all from the bitter anguish of such a trial as was forced upon Drecker! He stood by his duty, the bridge was closed, and the train passed slowly over it, but the boy was drowned! Little did any passenger in that train dream at what a fearful struggle between a sense of duty and the natural promptings of the human heart, the safe passage of the bridge had been secured.

Such is the story of Albert G. Drecker.—Historians and poets have told us

"How well Horatius kept the bridge
In the brave days of old,"

but the Jersey railroad servant "kept the bridge" at a costlier sacrifice than the Roman Captain. And what remains? Drecker is a poor man; his position in life is an humble one, and while his loss is irreparable, his noble conduct may be rewarded. The railway company owes him a heavy debt; the passengers on that Friday afternoon train should deem it a privilege to contribute to raise a monument to the child, to fitly commemorate the deed, and the press throughout the land should let his name be known everywhere.

THE ST. THOMAS PURCHASE.

By the terms of the treaty of the United States with Denmark for the purchase of St. Thomas, it was to be ratified by or before the 24th of February, 1868, or its provisions would become void.

When the treaty came before the Senate, that body omitted to take action upon it, and the period for ratification was extended by Mr. Seward, in concert with the Danish Minister, to the 15th of October next.

Should the period for ratification not be extended again, of course the treaty will on that day become as if it had never been negotiated. We do not know what may be the view of this treaty taken by the Administration. It may be friendly or it may be hostile, or it may be neither. In any event we presume the Secretary of State will not care to take the responsibility which now belongs exclusively to the Senate, of rejecting this treaty, as he would do if he permitted the term for ratification to elapse before the meeting of Congress.

Unless Mr. Fish has a greater taste for assuming responsibilities which do not belong to him than we are disposed to impute to him, he will be likely to keep the treaty alive until the Senate shall positively ratify or reject it.

It would be a pity to have this treaty fail, without a debate and a solemn enunciation of the true limits of Executive power in his negotiations with foreign States that the latter may know just what importance to attach to any engagement of our Executive, so long as it lacks the Senatorial approval. The policy of our Government upon the subject ought to be defined, both for our own sakes and to prevent any future misunderstandings with foreign sovereigns, who suppose that a treaty negotiated by our Executive and his Minister of State is conclusive, in the absence of fraud in its negotiation, as it is in all other countries.—N. Y. Times.

CHINESE WALLS.—China is the banner country of the world on walls. The great wall is not, it is true, quite so wonderful a structure as many have supposed it to be. We are told by one who visited China some seventy five years ago, that this wall is twenty five feet thick and as many in height, that it is faced with stone or brick work of the most solid construction; that it is carried along ridges, over the tops of the highest mountains, and, by means of arches, across deep valleys and rivers, for fifteen hundred miles; and that at some points it is doubled and trebled to take in important passes. But Huc, who crossed the wall more than a dozen times, and sometimes traveled for days together without losing sight of it, says that, except immediately to the North of Pekin, it is nowhere the wonderful wall it has been described to be. In some parts he found it a very humble looking wall of clay; in other places it is composed only of stones piled together.

The walls of Chinese cities cost a much greater amount of labor than the great wall. A late traveller tells that all the names found on our largest maps of China are names of walled cities. There are, according to his estimate, over one thousand seven hundred of these cities, and their walls, which are as strong as the great wall where it is the strongest, amount in the aggregate to nearly seven thousand miles, and would, therefore, if placed in one continuous line, reach nearly one third the way round the globe.—Oliver Optic's Magazine.

AN INSULT TO MR. GREELEY—DIMMOCK'S GREAT MISTAKE.—Years ago, Mr. Dimmock, the keeper of one of the hotels now conducted by his son, was a leading member of the Whig party in Milford, Pike County, Penn. He used to attend to most of the party machinery, and, like our fathers generally, was fond of "smiling" occasionally. About 1850 Horace Greeley started from New York for that village. By some means he missed the stage at Middletown. Coming on to Port Jervis, eight miles from there, he likewise missed the stage at that point. Accordingly he looted it, arriving at Dimmock's in a dusty, dirty condition. Now, it so happened that the "host" had been "smiling" that afternoon, and felt unusually salubrious. As Horace entered the bar room, looking very seedy, he walked up to the counter, and pointing to his dusty garments, requested Dimmock to give him a pail in which he might bathe his feet.—But the latter, in his exhilarated frame of mind, mistook the Tribune philosopher for a beggar, and roughly replied, "You d—d old hog, go and wash in the water-trough there." Dimmock never heard the last of that unfortunate response—made to one of the leaders of his own party—not even after he went into the Democratic organization. To the day of his death he used to be plied with reminiscences of Greeley and the trough story. Since then Mr. Greeley has hated Pike county with honest hatred.—Chicago Evening Journal.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with Rowell's Patent Double Cogwheels, and the Patent Stop, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. P. Howard, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machine, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1869.

OURSELF AND THE "RING."

We have learned that members of the "Ring," and some of its sympathisers and, perhaps, "sleeping partners," whose names have not been publicly connected with its transactions, are furious at us, on account of the expose we made of the appropriations by the Legislature; some saying one thing and some another; some threaten to demolish us before the people, by declaring we are not friendly to Railroads and are depreciating the State credit, &c. The Standard has taken the cue and declared these falsehoods in its forcible feeble style, over and over, adding that the SENTINEL is opposed to popular education, and much more in the same strain.

Now, all this is the merest clap-trap and hypocritical cant of the "Ring," and its co adjutors, and in no way affects us. We are not to be diterred from an honest and faithful discharge of our duty to the public, by threats or menaces, or anything of the kind; we intend to expose the corruption and villainy of those men in power who prove recreant to the duty of their position, at every hazard and at any cost. Neither threats nor hostile demonstrations will cause us to stay our pen when we ought to write, nor to repress our voice when we ought to speak. We are not warlike in temper, but have sufficient fortitude and courage for self-defense, and we give those who threaten us with canes and assassination, notice that, while they may take our life they will get hurt while they are at it, and when we perish by such lawless violence, there are others who will take our place.

Can any one be deceived by the hypocritical cries of the "Ring?" We do not believe so. It is simply ridiculous to say we are not the friends of Railroads, and equally as ridiculous to say that we are unfriendly to the credit of the State. Every line we ever wrote upon these subjects was in the interest of both, as these slanderers well know, and, better than this, the people know this to be true. But we say frankly to the "Ring," that we are unfriendly to it and its fraudulent course, and intend to expose both to the best of our ability. It shall not plunder and rob the Treasury of the people with our consent and connivance. We intend to expose all its nefarious transactions with an unsparing hand, and we notify the members of the "Ring," that our facilities for doing so in the future will be better than in the past, and we repeat to these men that we are not to be deterred from our purpose by the silly cries, the false accusations or malicious threats they set up whenever their sordid and avaricious sensibilities are touched by what we write.

Our purpose in the article of Monday of last week, which gave such particular offense, was to make an exhibit of the enormous appropriations made by the Legislature, at its late sessions, without reference to any of the several appropriations as valid or invalid. Our purpose was to let the people see what the corrupt Legislature had done; and in making this exhibit some body got hurt, while others got scared, and well they might. We intend to make like exhibits that will hurt and frighten them worse still. Mark what we say; we can cite the chapter, page and section, for all that we said in the exhibit referred to, and we will do so if any one requests it. We think that, at least, one third of these appropriations are absolutely void. But we will have more to say on this subject hereafter. Our present purpose is to tell the "Ring" we are not scared and don't intend to be.

When we resume the expose of extravagant and corrupt appropriations of the people's money, we shall take occasion to allude to many items not incorporated into the acts of Assembly, by which the people's money is drawn from their pockets, indirectly, and that in amounts that will make an ugly showing.

In the meantime, reader, we know you are feeling the truth of what we have said on this subject of taxation and appropriation—you feel it when the tax gatherer comes round. It shall be our purpose to show you who has placed this burden upon you; how it was done, and what it was done for.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

The Register of Deeds for Wake county issues a card calling upon all persons to register their grants of lands, deeds of conveyance, powers of attorney, &c., before the first day of October, in order to prevent their becoming invalid, and cites articles from "An act to require the registration of deeds," as authority for the action.

We have all along been under the impression that the position taken by the Register in his card, is the correct one, and have so stated more than once; but we see the Standard of this morning says it is all a mistake about registering the deeds, &c., mentioned before the 1st of October, to make them valid, and cites an act to sustain the position.

Now, who is right? This is a matter of no trifling import. The publication of the laws of the Legislature is delayed from week to week and from month to month; so that no one has a chance to see what the law is; while a public officer notifies the public they must do a certain thing by a certain time or suffer a loss involving perhaps their all, and the "organ" on the other hand making a directly opposite declaration, and both quoting law to sustain their position. We believe the Register is right, at least the course he recommends is safe; but, who can tell?

COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

Our people are not sufficiently alive to the importance of the Convention to be held in Louisville, on the 12th of October. Norfolk and the whole State of Virginia well understand how such Conventions are to redound to their commercial interest, general and material welfare.

We publish extracts from the proceedings of the Convention that assembled at Memphis, and resolutions passed at a public meeting in the City of Louisville:

EXTRACT FROM PROCEEDINGS OF MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

"1. That it was unanimously resolved that the next meeting of this Convention be held in the City of Louisville, Ky.

"2 That the time for holding such Convention shall be the 12th day of October, 1869. * * * As a basis of representation for the guidance of the next meeting at Louisville, the Convention report—

"That the city authorities of each city of 8,000 inhabitants shall appoint one delegate for each additional 10,000 inhabitants.

"That the Governor of each State and Territory shall appoint a delegation at large, not exceeding one for each Congressional district.

"That each Incorporated Railroad, Steamboat, Manufacturing or Mining Company in actual operation, having over $50,000 cash capital paid in, shall appoint one delegate.

"That each Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade shall appoint one delegate for every hundred members or fractional hundred.

"The gentlemen invited by the Committee of Arrangements of the place where the Convention is to be held be considered honorary members of the Convention, entitled to the privilege of the floor, but not entitled to speak or vote.

"RESOLVED, That the delegates in this Convention from the City of Louisville, with Col. Blanton Duncan as Chairman, shall constitute the Committee of Arrangements to confer with the Mayor, and Councils, and Board of Trade and the various business men of that city relative to proper preparations for the sitting of the Convention and the invitation of delegates thereto."

RESOLUTIONS OF PUBLIC MEETING IN LOUISVILLE, JUNE 2, 1869.

Isaac Caldwell, Esq., chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, made the following report:

RESOLVED, That the people of Louisville cordially extend a welcome to the delegates who may attend the Southern Commercial Convention on the 12th of October, and assure them that the great measures upon which they will be called upon to deliberate will enlist the earnest attention of the business men of the city.

RESOLVED, That the commercial interests of the whole Union are so inseperably interlaced that the prosperity of one section redounds to the interest of all, and the depression of any portion is sensibly felt in every department of commerce.

RESOLVED, Therefore, that every effort should be made by the mercantile community of every State to resuscitate and develop the languishing interests of any portion of the country which may temporarily droop, and that, knowing no sectional division, we hold out the hand of brotherhood to every American, in the hope that wise efforts to benefit our common country may cement affections and blot out the differences of the past.

RESOLVED, That we will extend the hospitality of Louisville to the strangers who may come amongst us to aid in the good work, and that nothing shall be left undone to impress them with a heartfelt, cordial, Kentucky welcome.

RESOLVED, That the delegates from Louisville to the late Memphis Convention are entitled to our hearty thanks for the able and judicious manner in which they discharged their duty, and sought to advance the material interests of the city and State, and that we hereby assure them of our continued appreciation of their energy and public spirit.

RESOLVED, That we will co operate zealously with the Committee of Arrangements and any auxiliary committees to insure the complete success of the Convention and the comfort and enjoyment of the delegates and strangers who may come amongst us.

MAINE ELECTION.—Augusta, Me., Sept. 16.—Returns from 331 cities and towns give a total vote of 76 358, as follows:—Chamberlain, 41,671; Smith, 30,708; Hichborn, 3 979; Chamberlain's majority over both, 6 984. Hichborn's vote will not exceed 4,500, and Chamberlain's majority will be 7,500. The falling off on the total vote from last year will be 41,000. The constitutional amendment giving towns the right to divide into wards, is passed, although the vote is very small. The Senate stands 27 Republicans, 3 Democrats and 1 doubtful. The House will probably stand 126 Republicans to 25 Democrats. The Hichborn party have not elected a single member of either branch of the Legislature.

A correspondent at St. James, Phelps county notifies us of the death of a venerable centenarian, Archibald W. Oxendine, who died on the 31 instant, at Benton's Creek, near the Merimac Iron Works in that county. The deceased was born on Pedee river, South Carolina, August 26, 1759, and was consequently over 110 years of age at the time of his death. He served throughout the war of the Revolution as one of "Marion's Men," and for over forty years was a minister of the Baptist denomination.—St. Louis Rep.

At a meeting of the Polytechnic Association of the American Institute, a few days ago, the Chairman exhibited a letter which was certainly a curiosity. The letter and envelope were made of sheet iron, and yet weighed less than the regular letter rate, one-half ounce. The envelope measures four and seven eighths, by two and three-fourths inches, and the letter is eight by five inches. Careful measurement with a micrometer give one five hundredth of an inch as the thickness of the sheet. Letters have been written on sheet iron before, and an iron book of three hundred pages which measures less than one inch in thickness was shown at the World's Fair. The book was printed with elastic type made especially for the purpose.

In New York last week there were 451 deaths, 197 marriages and 248 births.

PROGRESSIVE.

We have often noted in the Express the tendency of Radical ideas to destroy all that is substantial in religion, stability and good order. Every week or two men of this class make public proclamation of their doctrines, and very recently the following turns up from the pen of Mr. Henry C. Wright, who writes a letter to the Chicago Universe, dated "Cape Cod Camp Meeting," which he describes as "a great gathering of self forgetting, progressive men and women, met to find out where they wish to go, and to help one another go there." These "self-forgetting, progressive men and women" subscribe to the following:

"Resolved, The religion of Fact, which is to be the religion of the future, recognizes and inculcates the great truth that man is before and above all outside Gods as an object of thought, love and worship, and that human beings, as husbands and wives, parents and children, brothers and sisters, and in all relations, do and ought to bestow their thoughts and affections on one another, rather than on what is recognized and worshipped as God by Christendom, and by all the religions of the world."

Mr. Wright then proceeds to give some account of "a truly great and noble woman," a hierophani at the altar raised by the progressive men and women at Cape Cod.—Her husband asked this noble creature, "Who has most of your thoughts, plans, interests—your husband, or an outside God?" She replied by letter, and said:

"I do not know who, nor what, nor where God is outside of my husband. My husband is my manifest God. Is God, outside of my husband, a personal Being?—with heart, mind, thought and feeling? Does he pour upon me his boundless, infinite love, day by day, hour by hour? Does he care for me, as he cares for all, with a tender, patient, fatherly love? Such a God, so far as he is true and right, according to my ideas of truth and righteousness, is father, I can admire and love; but I cannot give my thoughts and interests to Him before my husband."

Such is the teachings of a class of New England minds, and hard upon it comes a beautifully-printed book of some 250 pages, entitled "The History and Philosophy of Marriage; or, Polygamy and Monogamy Compared, by a Christian Philanthropist." George William Curtis, not agreeing with its conclusions, endorses this book for "its knowledge, candor, and evident honesty of purpose." It advocates polygamy with zeal and earnestness, and is as prurient as are the writings of the latter-day saints.

Persons who read the above will not be surprised to learn that children are born in New England, at the present time, about as one to four in the better days of the country; nor that houses of abortion have multiplied four fold; nor that the doctrine of free love prevails to a more alarming extent than ever before; nor that, but for the births from parents who are foreign born, the native race would soon run out. While one husband, may satisfy Mr. Wright's female friend—who says her husband is "her manifest God"—others, it seems, believe, with Brigham Young, that one wife is only the tortieth part of the number of wives to which a man is entitled. Truly, these are the days of boasted progress!—N. Y. Express.

HOW DO THEY DO IT?—The Baltimore Gazette reports men in office, with a salary of three thousand dollars a year, and who were poor when they entered upon its duties, living at the rate of six and eight thousand, and at the end of three or four years erecting magnificent dwellings at a cost of eighteen or twenty thousand dollars, for which they pay cash. Such facts are notorious, and brazenly confront one at every turn. This is one feature of modern official life at the Federal Capital, and here is another from "the other end of the Capital":

"Senators and Representatives have their agents; and when an American citizen comes on 'business before Congress,' or with a recommendation for official position, as his business is known (and there are always parties at the hotels on the look out,) he is advised to see Mr. So-and so, who has unlimited influence with the Senator or Representative whose services it is important to secure. The party is seen, an arrangement is made, an interview is secured, and, if the job 'pays well,' the citizen accomplishes his purpose. But if not, after much delay, and the using up of all his available cash, he leaves Washington, cursing the town, the people, and particularly the 'Philistines' into whose hands he fell."

And here is still another sample of life at the Capital, on the part of Radical Senators and Representatives who believe the "whole concern" belongs to them:

"One Senator and ex-Cabinet Minister who, by the way, in the last ten years, from nothing, has accumulated over a million of dollars) has three near relatives, a father, son and daughter, in the employ of the Government—two in the Interior Department, and one in the Treasury. The husband of the daughter is also a Government clerk, and the husband of another daughter holds a like position. Here we have five members of one family supported by the Government."

This is presented as but one of many instances where almost whole families are provided for, at the request of Senators or Representatives; and while these are kept in, hundreds of deserving men have been dismissed, and their families are reduced to suffering.—N. Y. Express.

HORRORS OF WAR.—The Cuba El Pabellon Nacional says: The internal work of devastation and ruin pursues its course in our rich district, not from day to day, but from hour to hour, threatening to submerge us in the most frightful misery, and discovering in prospective the terrible specter of famine. The torch of this infamous banditism has been brought to the rural district of Yaguaramas, in this jurisdiction, and after reducing to ashes the village of Charcas, burned Bagazal and the suburban residences adjoining it. As we observe from the streets of our once active and prosperous city the columns of smoke rising on the opposite side of the bay in a westerly direction, as we listen to the sorrowful narrations of those whom such a nefarious crime reduces to the necessity of seeking an asylum in Cienfuegos, we ask ourselves if Divine Providence has turned away from us forever, and if we are condemned to witness without hope of remedy a scourge as afflicting as it is terrible, consummating the complete ruin of our country.

Commenting on the above a Havana correspondent of the New York Times says:—"The above picture is true to the life. Conflagration has swept over the country like a huge gale of destruction, and the torch marks the foot prints of the Cuban libertyseekers, whose ally is devastion. Their motto is liberty or destruction."

Col. Von Schaliba, Lieutenant Colonel of Engineers on Gen. S. B. Buckner's staff during the late war, and now an officer on the staff of General Von Maltke, of the Prussian army, is on a visit to this country.

An extraordinary divorce suit is recorded by the Weston (Mo.) Landmark of the 10th. An old gentleman, aged ninety four years, and his wife, aged eighty seven, residents of Pettis township, after living together seventy years, concluded the other day to dissolve their marital relation. They made an equal division of their property and went their separate ways. A more remarkable divorce case is seldom heard of.

A story told some time ago about the approaching marriage of "the daughter of the immensely rich Lord Granville" and the French Marquis Pinchez de Labedoyere has been ruthless spoiled by the development of the fact that the daughter of Lord Granville is not yet three years old.

It is stated that the United States steamer Lancaster, flagship of the South Atlantic Squadron, Rear-Admiral Lanman commanding, and recently fitted out at Norfolk has been ordered to Annapolis, where she will be visited by Secretary Robeson, Admiral Porter, and probably, the President. The Lancaster is one of the finest vessels in the navy, and has been fitted up in very fine style. She will sail in the course of two weeks.

DECAY OF AMERICAN SHIPPING.

The saddest reflection which an American abroad brings home with him is the utter absence of our flag on the high seas. Nowhere—nowhere—do you see it as of old. Seventeen years ago I sailed in the Mediterranean, from the Gates of Hercules to the Golden Horn. Now scarcely a sail of ship or smoke stack of steamer of American build or ownership is seen.—[S. S. Cox.

Not long since I passed among the livers to Savona, and I counted 250 vessels, large and small, on the maritime docks in course of construction.—[Count Menabrea, Prime Minister to Italy.

One of the draughtsmen in the employ of Mr. Wm. H. Webb, of this city, lately returned from Scotland, reports that he saw in one yard in Glasgow, fourteen large ships on the stocks; three of these were launched before breakfast one morning, and by nightfall of the same day, the keels were laid of new ships to be built in their places.—[N. Y. Times.

We might fill the Express with paragraphs like these. Indeed, we have never failed to call attention to the mortifying facts which they betray. On the N. Y. Bay, about every day, we see the flags of almost all nations but our own at the mast-heads of steamers coming from Havre, Brest, Hamburgh, Bremen, Liverpool, London, Antwerp, Queenstown, Glasgow, and elsewhere. It was not so in the olden times. It was not so before the Radical party had an existence. It need not be so now. The country is full of coal, iron and wood. We have the best ship-building material in the world, excepting cordage and duck, and workmen just as skilled as those upon the Clyde or upon the Elbe. Why, then, are we robbed of our commerce? Why are we beaten even by the miserable 'lazzaroni of Italy? The hardy Scots and energetic Genoese might perhaps be competitors, but they now drive us from the seas; and the cause is the taxing policy of the Government, which is making our commerce tributary to the third class States and Governments of the Old World. Take off all taxes from ship building materials, and all undue taxes from our commerce, and we will guarantee that as fast and as strong ships will be built in the United States as in any part of the world. We know whereof we are speaking, and desire to see the statement we make put to the practical test.—N. Y. Express.

A gentleman well known in mercantiles circles in this city has just effected his release from the Lunatic Asylum at Bloomingdale, after an incarceration of three months; during the whole of which time he alleges he was of perfectly sound mind. "I can only assert," says he, "that I am sane now, was sane at the time I was taken there, and was of sound mind and memory during the whole time I remained there." He alleges that he was inveigled into the asylum by certain parties for purposes which will appear by the legal proceedings soon to be instituted.—N. Y. Times.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF

TEXT-BOOKS

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of Mr. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug. 9-th, 1869, by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
BEER'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October prox. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the State.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with

C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill, N. C.: SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no other era when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALDERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.: GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular.

J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.: DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present season McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CLOSS.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work. M. L. LITTLE,

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.: AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.

Prof. WM. A. GREECHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. R. DROMGOLE, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.: WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, 'McNally's Geography' [No. 5] and 'Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy.' I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of the kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is bereft-freed from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.: MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. Jos. H. Fry, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.: WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall hence-forth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FRY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1868.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller. The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1868.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1868.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1868

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are;

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read, or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully,
F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H. McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

B. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved. DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

State of North Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28, 1868.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public. JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.
Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision. THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

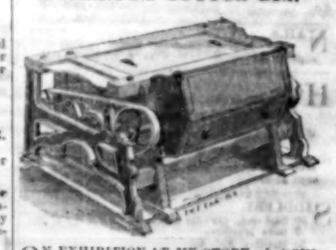
GULLETT'S COTTON GIN.



ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."

The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.

The "Gullett Gin" has been awarded the Premiums at the several STATE FAIRS of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

I am Agent for the sale and would be pleased to fill orders.

Male Teacher Wanted; Address Rev. Ed. Wootten Windsor N. C.

QUACKENBOS' ARITHMETICS.—We learn that the Board of Education of the City of Petersburg, Va., on the 20th inst., adopted Quackenbos' Arithmetics, after a careful examination of all the Arithmetics published, for the use of the public schools of that city.

ACCUSED OF COW STEALING.—Ned Hockady, Sr., Ned Hockady, Jr., and Duncan Huckady, all colored, were up before Justice J. P. Adams, yesterday, on a charge, preferred by Craty Blake, of shooting her cow on the 16th instant. The evidence was not sufficient to substantiate the charge and the case was dismissed at Plaintiff's cost. An appeal was taken and the case will have a hearing before the Superior Court.

APOLOGETIC.—We crave the indulgence of our readers for the limited amount of reading matter we are giving them, just now, owing to a heavy influx of advertisements. We shall be enabled to condense our advertising columns after a little while, and give more general reading matter.

A fellow named Benjamin, once a member of the loil melish that went to Jones, has been trying to pass himself off as the Local of the Standard and trying to buy a suit of clothes on the credit of that position, a fact at which the real Local is very much amused.

We have received a circular from the "Union Land Company," of New York, requesting a gratuitous insertion in our columns. We charge our home Companies for such things, and we surely shall not advertise for outsiders on more favorable terms; besides, we think a joint stock Company that can't pay to advertise its business, had better dissolve. It looks like venturing on a speculation without capital—taking all the chances of making without running any risk of loss.

DEAD.—A telegram to a gentleman of this city, announces the death, in New York, on Tuesday, of Mr. Charles W. Graham, formerly of Raleigh.

N. C. HOME INSURANCE COMPANY.—We have had laid on our table a partial list of persons insured in the N. C. Home (Fire) Insurance Company, of Raleigh, which makes a very satisfactory exhibit of the six months operations since its organization. The list embraces about four hundred names, scattered throughout nearly all the counties of the State.

This Company has ample funds deposited in bank to meet promptly all its losses, and it being a home Company, gives it, perhaps peculiar claims on our people; and in these times of incendiarism it is the part of prudence for every person to take the wise precaution against loss and ruin, which this Company offer.

NOT PRAIRIE.—We were led into error in our last issue, by the Journal of Commerce, in regard to the party with whom Mr. O'Connor, of Newbern, is going into copartnership in the Restaurant business in this city; it is not Prairie, but Pepper that he is going in "cahoot" with.

DRY AND DUSTY.—The weather is becoming exceeding disagreeable and oppressive on account of the drouth and dust.—We do not believe there has been so long a dry spell since 1838, when nearly all the small streams, springs and wells dried up, and it was difficult in some sections to get water for man or beast to drink.

FAIR AFFAIRS.—We are requested to say that persons wishing to keep Refreshment Stands on the Fair Grounds, can obtain license for that purpose on application to the Secretary of the Society, who will make known to applicants the terms and conditions.

Bids for the Refreshment Rooms will be received from those who purchase license. Office hours from 2 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

REVERSIDE MAGAZINE.—The October number of this sprightly and excellent monthly has made its appearance.

This Magazine is designed for young people and is always full of interesting and wholesome reading matter, in every way proper for the perusal of those for whom it is intended.

This number has eighteen seperate articles, ends with enigmas, charades, and a page of "Mother Goose" music. Published by Hurd & Houghton, New York; $2,50 a year.

The Fall term of the Superior Court commenced in the counties of Jones and Johnston on Monday last.

The latest accounts from David Greene, who was recently shot in Jones county, states that he is some better, and hopes of his recovery are entertained.

Capt Berry is erecting a very handsome building designed as a store, in Hillsboro' So says the Recorder.

The same lively town, we see from the Recorder is getting moral; it has got a Temperance Society in full blast.

THE CEMETERY.—As we have said elsewhere, in our drive Monday afternoon, we went through the New Cemetery Grounds, (Oakdale,) and were thoroughly astonished at the amount of work that has been done, and the changed appearance of the place, since our last visit, three weeks ago.—About a mile and a half of road has been graded and put in beautiful order; bridges built; undergrowth cleared off; fences that will soon be completed have been commenced, while the whole landscape view is assuming a form and outline that promise to be of the most pleasing character.

We have learned a fact we did not know before, namely, that all profits arising from sale of lots, &c., is to be expended in the ornamentation of the grounds, the erection of a Chapel, a house for the sexton, &c.

When the work is completed; the rustic bridges erected, the lakes enclosed, shrubbery planted and all the roads and avenues graded, Oakdale Cemetery will be the most pleasant resort in reach of our citizens.

STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.—At a meeting of the Committee, appointed by the Chatham Educational Association, held September 31st, 1869, it was resolved that the time heretofore fixed for the meeting of a State Educational Convention be changed to October twenty first.

This conclusion was arrived at after mature deliberation and a correspondence with many of the leading educators of the State.

All teachers and friends of education are cordially invited to meet at the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, in Raleigh, on Thursday afternoon, October 21st, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a State Educational Convention.

The various Railroads in the State will pass delegates for one fare.

RICHARD WAT YORK,
President of Chatham Educational Association and Chairman of Committee.

State papers please copy.

At the Boat races under the auspices of the "Carolina Yacht Club," which came off at Wrightsville Sound, below Wilmington, on Tuesday, as we learn from the Journal, six boats were entered, among them the "Teaser," which won the last regatta. The Carolina, entered by Capt. Wm. Smith won the race in 1 hour and 38 minutes, distance 7½ miles, beating the Retta by 2 minutes, and the Teaser by 4 minutes.

RESULT OF RADICAL MANAGEMENT.—A notice appears in the Newbern Journal of Commerce, advertising for sale, by the Sheriff of Craven county, that part of the A. & N. C. Railroad which lies in that county, to satisfy executions in his hands against the Company.

Here is a chance for Littlefield and the "Ring."

There will be a meeting of the "Baptist Sunday School Association, of North Carolina," on the evening of the 29th inst., at the Baptist Church in Raleigh. Members are urgently invited to attend as business of importance will come before the meeting.

JOHN G. WILLIAMS,
President.

RALEIGH ASSOCIATION.—The next annual session of this body will assemble with the Church at Bethany on the N. C. Rail Road, 12 miles west of Raleigh, on Friday before the 3d Sunday in October, 1869, instead of the 2d Sunday as it is mis printed in the Minutes.

D. B. HOLLAND.

The Baptist State Convention of N. C., will hold its thirty ninth session with the church in Newbern, commencing on Wednesday, the 10th of November, 1869.

The appointments for preaching are as follows: Introductory Sermon—Rev. J. H. Phillips; alternate—J. L. Carroll, Missionary Sermon—Rev. J. C. Hiden; alternate—Rev. Wm. Royall, D. D.

J. L. CARROLL, Rec. Sec.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal in a recent communication to that paper, makes the following allusions to things in and about this city:

"But the new Market House, City Hall, &c., now being erected here, will prove, when completed, one of the grandest burlesques upon architectural beauty and symmetry that this or any other country has ever witnessed. The first, or Market floor is ridiculously disproportioned to those above it, as though the larger body over it had forced the lower one to circumscribe its limits, per force of the compression above.

Let us leave this radically reconstructed Market House and City Hall, and passing through the Capitol Square, stop in front of the new structure just north of the State House and built upon the site of the old Guion Hotel. The imposing structure before us has been erected by Judge Fowle, and will be occupied as soon as completed by Mr. J. M. Blair, of the Yarborough House, who will give it his own name and who will dispense here the same genial hospitality to the traveling public that has already gained him "a name and a fame" exceeding far beyond the limits of this city. The Blair House will contain some sixty-five rooms, all of them fitted up comfortably and with a fire place in each. The suits of apartments, apportioned off for families have almost every convenience that modern improvements have suggested. When completed the rooms will be furnished throughout with new and handsome furniture, and Mr. Blair, the proprietor, can then challenge the country to produce the equals of the Yarborough and Blair Houses.

THE MARRIAGE QUESTION IN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Whig says:

"A colored man wants to marry a white woman in Petersburg, and the clerk of the court, to whom application was made for license, has written to Gen. Canby asking for instructions as to the law, whether the civil rights bill had the effect of removing the prohibition of the State law against the issue of licenses for the intermarriage between white and black. Now, we suppose Gen. Canby will have no trouble whatever in deciding the question, as the Supreme Court of North Carolina has recently by a unanimous vote, decided that the civil rights bill and the provision of the new constitution of that State which establishes the perfect political equality of races do not repeal the law of said State forbidding the intermarriage of white and colored people."

Grant was at the State Department nearly all the afternoon.

The Government of the United States learning from parties, who had visited Spain, that its meditation between Spain and Cuba would be accepted by Spain instructed Minister Sickles to tender its friendly offices.

Spain has formally replied, thanking the United States, but declining to enter into arrangements with the insurgents on the basis proposed. There is no reason to believe that Spain invited European Powers to interfere in its concerns regarding Cuba. Spain having declined mediation, there is nothing else proposed by our Government.

There are no war apprehensions felt here.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Times says: "That the Spanish have found their advantage in a bold display of patriotism and national courage. She met the imagined affront with immediate defiance, though their threatened adversary is ten times more powerful than themselves.—Sickles is manifestly alarmed at the result of his proceedings, and has requested further instructions. Pending a reply from Washington, he desires to withdraw his note. If this is actually the position of the case, Spain owes it to her own fearlessness, which may savor of unreason, but does not partake of the nature of bravado. She declares that if driven to an extremity she will fight, and no doubt she will. For her to gain any advantage by doing so is out of the question, but as matters stand, she would lose less than her adversary. America may decline an easy victory on such onerous and partial terms.

The people and governments of Spain have resolved not to part with Cuba without a struggle. The contest could only result in the sacrifice of Cuba, coupled with other but slighter losses. Sickles expected no such resistance as his note has provoked. Possibly in the face of such opposition his proceedings may be qualified or repudiated by his Government. It is believed he exceeded his authority; that America is not responsible for his acts at Madrid.

The treaty of Commerce between England and Spain is about completed. The first action of the Cortes on re-assembling will be the election of a King. Thus far the King of Portugal is the favorite."

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered in the Union. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the RAGIN AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are so need that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 561 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

FENCES—NO. 2.

We wish it understood that we cannot do without some fencing in this county; neither do we wish to debar any farmer from having as much as he may choose; but to be forced to build and repair to the amount of millions of dollars annually in every State, is an actual curse to the country and a plague upon its industry.

To take a fair and considerate view of this question it would seem next to an impossibility for law or custom in a free country to continue in practice anything more unjust, burdensome and tyrannical upon the agricultural interest than the present law of enclosure.

We know this will be considered strong language, but we mean it to be such, as we shall endeavor to prove every word to be true.

If a man purchases a tract of land, how much will it cost him to enclose 100 acres before he can reap any benefit from it?

It is reasonable to suppose he will have of this 100 acres at least two fields; supposing each of these two fields to be in the best possible shape, (a square,) it will require at least 800 pannels, and allowing 13 rails to the pannel, it will take 10,400 rails to fence it.

To split this number of rails from the forest that has been culled over, as is the case on a great many farms, will cost at least $80. The hauling and building will be $30; by adding these together we have $110, cash paid out.

Experience teaches this fence will have to be replaced in about 8 years, making the the annual cost of repairs $12 50. To this should be added the value of land on which the fence stands, and value of timber used. The fence will occupy at least two acres. The timber, being the best in the forest, is worth 40 cents per cord; 10,400 rails will make 100 cords.

We learn from the census of 1860 there are 23,762,969 acres of land, valued at $143,301,065, making the average valuation per acre a fraction over $6; consequently, the valuation of this 50 acres will be $300.

To add these items together, we have—

First cost of fence,	$110 00
Annual repairs,	12 00
2 acres of land,	12 00
100 cords of wood for rails,	40 00
	$175 50

The cost of fencing and repairing is 58½ per cent. on the first cost, consequently the 58 acres of land must be depreciated to that amount. When we take into consideration the interest upon $175.50 for 8 years, at 6 per cent., we have $104.20, which detracts from the land an additional 34 per cent., making this field, at the expiration of eight years, cost $279.70, nearly as much as it first cost.

Let us calculate what the aggregate cost will be to keep the fences of the whole State in repair for the next eight years:

There was, according to the census of 1860, 65,000 farmers, possessing, in round numbers, 23,700,000 acres of land, which makes an average of 360 acres to the farm.

Of this amount 6,500,000 acres were improved, which makes an average of 100 acres of arable land to each farm; consequently there must be 13,000 fields.

If the cost of keeping in repair one field of fifty acres for the next eight years be $175.50, what will it cost to keep in repair 13 000 fields?

The answer will be $22,715,000, to say nothing of the interest, which increases the amount to $36,361,000, which must be lost in a period of eight years for repairs.

Here we might, by the same rule as a basis of calculation, show that over thirteen hundred millions of dollars will be expended in the aggregate by the United States, within a period of eight years, but it will suffice for us to confine ourselves to North Carolina.

This calculation does not include the lane fences forming the division line between farmers; neither does it include the many thousands of miles of fence which require two fences on the public roads, where one would answer, which is nearly a sufficiency for all pasturage purposes when taken into consideration with the interior stock lot fences which abound on all farms.

We know a large number of men, men who believe in the "good old way," will say this is an exaggerated statement; but to all such we ask you to take the statistics and go into a fair calculation, and if you do not agree with us that it is an odious and tyrannical tax upon the industry of the country, then we desire that you inform the Reconstructed Farmer by what rule you base your calculations upon.

There are others who will say that we are favoring the rich at the expense of the poor men. They will hold that the non land-holder, who has no land, cannot own a cow or hog, as he will have no where to keep them, but as it now is he can feed in the public roads and his stock can roam whithersoever they may choose.

Let me ask you if the non land owner does not have to secure a home for himself and family from the land-owner? This you are bound to admit. Then why is it he cannot secure a home for his cow or hog, as well as for his family?

Some will say he is not able to keep them up, as he will have to use more feed than if they run out.

Have you not learned that you cannot succeed in raising stock running at large; and do you know it has not been profitable in many sections for years; and do you not also know that the many loafing thieves render it impossible to succeed, however good the range may be?

Do you think it right for men to have their stock feeding and trespassing upon other men's lands? If you do, your conception of right is different from ours.

Go to Europe, and there you will find no law of enclosure, consequently you will not see the beautiful landscape marred by fences meandering here and there, making the division lines between farms, but living fences of hedges or posts of stone set up marking the boundaries. There the shepherd with his faithful dog keeps the herd of stock within proper limits.

We have no doubt but that if the same policy was adopted in this country, especially in the Northern and Western States and all through the range of Southern States where stock raising is profitable, there would be saved the millions of dollars now lost annually by the dogs, besides many other losses that might be saved by the attention of the herdsman.

We cannot believe that our Creator fashioned the grand and beautiful prairies of the South, West, and Northwest for the purpose of being fenced, as is the common custom.

But men even go there and introduce the detestable law of enclosure, thereby destroying the beauties of nature; for all must admit the planting of posts, in order to describe boundaries, would be more economical as well as more pleasant to the view.

A large number of farmers will admit this to be an oppressive law, and at the same time will hold that the proper time has not yet come for us to do away with it; but will agree that in the course of time this law will be abolished.

Why procrastinate when this law costs the country such an amount without remuneration?

Therefore, we hold that this law should be canvassed before the people, and that the Legislature should abolish it in toto and all other States similarly situated, and adopt that law which will compel men to keep their stock where economy, justice and equity demands, upon their own premises.

We are confident that our course will cause our journal to be less popular, as a large number of planters will not agree to depart from this time honored law.

We have been advised by many of our friends what course we should pursue, and what subjects we should write upon, and not act prematurely upon certain subjects.

We here say for the information of all concerned that the Reconstructed Farmer is an independent agricultural journal, and that we shall fearlessly, at all times, in our own way, give our views frankly upon all subjects affecting the agricultural, mining, mechanical, and manufacturing interest of this country.

For the Sentinel.

At a meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, held on the 31st day of August last, I was elected President. On the next day a drawing was advertised to take place on the 19th day of November, 1869, and my name published as President. This advertisement was made without consultation with me, and before the affairs of the Company had been looked into. Upon examining into them, I discovered that the assets were not sufficient to justify the announcement, and I immediately called a meeting of the Stockholders for the 16th day of September. At the meeting of the Stockholders on that day, I stated the condition of the affairs of the Company, as well as I could ascertain them from the books as I found them. The following resolutions were therefore adopted:

Resolved, That the President appoint a Committee of three to examine the books and papers of the Company, and ascertain, if possible, what disposition has been made of its funds.

The Committee under the resolution reported that they had not sufficient time for a thorough examination, and offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President be directed to employ two competent men to examine thoroughly into the affairs of the Company; to ascertain and report what disposition has been made of its funds; to put its present books into the best possible condition, and to open a new set of books upon such a system as shall secure the affairs of the Company from confusion hereafter.

This was amended so as to allow the President to appoint a third person, to be employed for not more than five days; and thus amended, passed.

The Chairman of the Committee also offered the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Stockholders are due, and are hereby tendered, to R. G. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer of the Company, for the faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties.

This was adopted, and it was then further

Resolved, That the Board of Directors be requested to make an assessment of three per cent. upon the stock of the Company, to be paid as follows: one per cent. within 15 days, and two per cent. on the 15th of October next.

Resolved, further, That the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to the amount of such payments, upon this assessment, and if this assessment be not sufficient to meet the liabilities of the Company, the Board of Directors shall increase the assessment until it be sufficient.

Resolved, That the President is hereby requested to enquire into the matter of money paid to J. G. Hester, late President, at Wilmington, for tickets and stock sold there, and to require the said J. G. Hester to pay said money to the Treasurer, or to account for it.

After the adjournment of the Stockholders, a meeting of the Board of Directors was called for Saturday the 18th inst. At this meeting, the following Directors, with the President attended: Robert G. Lewis Esq., and Messrs. J. G. Hester, J. C. Hester and Wesley Whitaker. After the proceedings of the Stockholders were read, R. G. Lewis Esq., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That an assessment of three per cent, on the stock sold, be made—that one per cent of the same be paid on the 1st of October, one per cent on the 15th of October, and one per cent on the 30th of October.

Resolved, Further, that the Stockholders who have already made payments of cash upon their stock, be allowed credit to amount of such payments, upon this assessment. Mr. J. G. Hester moved to amend by striking out all after the words "30th of October," and inserting the following:

Resolved, Further that the provisions of this resolution shall not apply to the stock sold by the late President in Wilmington, upon which 10 per cent was paid." This was accepted by Mr. Lewis, and the resolution, after discussion, passed.

The public can see from this action of the Stockholders, as well as of the Directors, that steps are being taken to raise money sufficient to place the Company upon a sound footing. I assure the public that every proper means in my power, as an individual, and as an officer of the Company, will be resorted to, to put right the affairs of the Company, and save those who have taken tickets from loss. No scheme will be advertised until this is accomplished, and then parties holding tickets can have the option to take money or exchange them for others. I feel a deep personal interest in the getting of the affairs of the Company straight, in addition to the interest I feel as an officer. My name was connected with it as one of the supervisors after the first drawing. While so acting I had no interest in the Company, and my only duty was to see that the drawings were fairly conducted, and I can assure the public that they were.

Very recently, before my election as President, I purchased some stock, but never knew anything of the financial condition of the Company until after my election.

UPWARD AND ONWARD!!

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE

IN THE

BROOKLYN LIFE?

BECAUSE,

AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE

CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

ALL POLICIES

Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH,

or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.
